that his decision to bid the trial of the case entirely in public had been fully justified by the magnificent manner in which the press of the country had dealt with it. After a short talk with her son, Mrs. William Thaw returned to her hotel.

WHITE'S CHARGE ON GIVING THAW CASE TO THE JURY

Court Goes Into Legal Points at Great Length in Submitting Fate of Stanford White's Slayer to the Twelve Men in the Box.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31. Justice Andrews charged the jury in the case of Stanley K. Thaw, charged with the murder of Stanford White, with the most full and complete instructions in the history of the courts in New York. It took more than two hours.

He began by defining the responsibility involved under the State law and then turned the jury to the question of the evidence. He said that the jury must be satisfied that the evidence was true and that the defendant was guilty.

The charge was a full and complete one, covering every point of law and fact. He said that the jury must be satisfied that the evidence was true and that the defendant was guilty.

Justice Andrews then turned to the question of the evidence. He said that the jury must be satisfied that the evidence was true and that the defendant was guilty.

He then turned to the question of the evidence. He said that the jury must be satisfied that the evidence was true and that the defendant was guilty.

Take one Cascaret just as soon as you know that you need it. Then you won't need a purgative. It is an easy and pleasant way to keep well.

This is the gift of the gentle in medicine. The cathartic pill is old-fashioned. Salts and castor oil belong to grandmother's time. The modern doctor dotes mildly. Cascarets are effective, yet gentle. They don't irritate or gripe. They don't like cathartics, waste the digestive fluids.

Cascarets do only what good foods will do, what come fruits will do, what exercise does for the bowels. Their action is natural, not artificial. If you live out-door, exercise a great deal, and avoid rich foods, you don't need them.

Otherwise you do. The most helpful laxative ever devised is Cascarets. Then, they are candy tablets, pleasant to take. Then, they are convenient. The ten-cent box fits the vest pocket or the lady's purse. That is a vital point.

The time to take Cascarets is the minute you suspect that you need it. Don't wait till you get home; don't wait till night. One Cascaret, taken promptly, wards off trouble. Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure to get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet. The price is 10 cents, 25 cents and 50 cents. 10 Cents per Box.

WALCOTT EASY FOR MARTIN

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 31.—John W. Watson, a young seaman in the sixteenth regiment, was today stopped at the Broadway

The young leader, on being told that he had been shot, Martin continued and encouraged the machine gunner all through the fight, and in the closing round forced Watson to hang on to a cliff to avoid punishment. Watcott did not show any of his former skill or aggressiveness. Martin wasted right into him from the first, and forced the colored fighter to be on the defensive most of the time. Now and then he would make a sudden spurt, but he would yield the floor to Watson.

Old Time Fighters Had Best Punches, Tad Says, and NEW BLOWS SCARCE AS HENS TEETH

When Tiger Bay and Margaret O'Connell, the old lady, will compete, Barrett and Hays were invited to the ring. But they were not. The reason is that they are not considered "old time" fighters. They will be considered "new blows" and will be expected to fight with the same tactics as the new fighters.

LOCKE AND CARTER DRAW
NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—RM Draw: Eddie Carter of Philadelphia fought a fast, "juicy" draw in the star bout at the Madison Square Garden. The semi-wind-up fight, Louis Armstrong, the star, was the winner.
